The following topics were discussed at the Project Meeting:

Discussion on the ongoing activities regarding implementation of open science principles at institutional level. Namely, the Project coordinator, prof. Smederevac, informed the contact person from the SUNP about the characteristics and functions of the institutional repository that is being created by University of Novi Sad in the scope of the Project. They also discussed the modalities of taking over the repository and its installment at SUNP.

Further on, they discussed the creation and implementation of institutional Open Science policies at SUNP, as one of the key activity foreseen by the Project. Prof. Kostic informed prof. Smederevac that SUNP has already started working on these documents, thus it might be expected to be adopted in the following month.
