

Minutes from the UNS Project Coordination Meeting

Boosting Engagement of Serbian Universities in Open Science (BE-OPEN)

---

|                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Event Title:          | Project Coordination Meeting                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Event Date:           | 18 February 2020                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Event Venue:          | University of Novi Sad                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| List of participants: | Prof. dr Snezana Smederevac, UNSProf. dr Sanja Radovanovic, UNSProf. dr Silvia Ghilezan, UNSProf. dr Branko Milosavljevic, UNSDoc. dr Dejan Pajic, UNSMirjana Brkovic, UNSDunja Malbasa, UNSAna Soti, UNS |

Tuesday, February 18th 2020

The following topics were discussed at the meeting:

- Discussing the draft of the final publications to be prepared for the Final Conference of the BEOPEN project
- Preparing the agenda for the final consortium meeting/conference.